Handwritten Japanese text in cursive (sōsho) style, likely a letter or document fragment. The text is written on a piece of aged, yellowish paper. The characters are dark ink, and the style is highly fluid and connected. The text is arranged in several vertical columns, with some characters appearing to be part of a larger sentence or phrase. The paper shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration.
