

【大谷家文書】 6-174

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive (sōsho) style, arranged in vertical columns. The text is written on a piece of aged, yellowish paper. The columns are organized into two main groups, one on the left and one on the right, separated by a central vertical fold or crease. The characters are dark and fluid, typical of traditional Japanese calligraphy. Some characters are written in a more formal style, while others are highly stylized and cursive. The overall layout suggests a formal document or a collection of related notes.
